BY E-FILE

The Honorable Leonard P. Stark
United States District Court of Delaware
844 North King Street
Wilmington, DE 19801

Re: Laboratory Skin Care Inc. et al v. Limited Brands Inc. et al
C.A. No.: 06-601 (LPS)

Dear Judge Stark:

The parties are submitting this joint status letter pursuant to the Court's instructions at the close of the trial on February 18, 2011. At this time, Plaintiffs, Laboratory Skin Care, Inc. and Zahra Mansouri (collectively "Plaintiffs or LSC"), currently intend to submit post-trial motions for judgment as a matter of law and/or for a new trial on the on-sale bar issue. Defendants Limited Brands Inc. and Bath & Body Works, LLC (collectively "Defendants" or "BBW") do not intend to file any post-trial motions unless the jury's verdict on liability is set aside as a result of Plaintiffs' post-trial motions.

The parties agree not to proceed with a trial on damages at this time. This agreement is without prejudice to LSC's right to pursue its damages claim in the event that the jury's verdict on liability is set aside by this Court or on appeal.

The Court also previously deferred the issue of inequitable conduct, which, if tried at all, would be tried to the Court. Subject to the Court's approval, the parties have agreed not to proceed with a trial on the issue of inequitable conduct at this time. This agreement is without prejudice to BBW's right to pursue its inequitable conduct defense in this Court and LSC's right to object to the assertion of that defense, in the event that the jury's verdict of invalidity is set aside by this Court or on appeal.

Alternatively, if the Court prefers to address the issue of inequitable conduct at this time, Plaintiffs respectfully request a hearing on their motion to preclude Defendants from presenting evidence on the inequitable conduct issue (as raised in the proposed joint pretrial order submitted in advance of the first pretrial conference held on December 8, 2010) prior to scheduling a trial on inequitable conduct.

Counsel are available should Your Honor have any questions.

Respectfully,

/s/ Melanie K. Sharp
